TIM BRADLEY

Cinematographer. Director of Photography. EFP Lighting Camera. Camera Operator

Professional Profile

I am a freelance Cinematographer with over 20 years' experience shooting commercials, corporate videos, documentaries, reality TV, special events and live TV.

My visual talent and creative skills have seen me shooting across the country and around the globe. I have strong expertise and experience in all areas of production and post-production, having worked for many years at one of Australia's leading post houses, Omnilib.

Based in Northern NSW, Australia, I am available for projects large and small, anywhere between Byron Bay and Brisbane. I have an extensive range of camera, lighting and production equipment.
