TIM REBBECHI

Director of Photography / Cinematographer / Editor

Tim Rebbechi, began his career as a freelance Director of Photography in 1998, after focusing his skills on Commercials, News, Sport and Live Broadcasts as a cameraman, editor and producer. Today his clients cover broadcast networks, advertising agencies, government departments, universities, non-for-profits and independent producers.

As a lighting cameraman, Tim has coordinated and filmed countless location interviews, often with minimal crew and short setup times. With a careful eye for creativity and detail, Tim delivers engaging images that advance your story and stylistic approach, within budget and on schedule.

He is skilled with an array of digital cinema cameras including: Sony FX6, FX9, FS7; XDCAM cameras, such as the PDW-F800, PMW-350 and Sony A7SIII, A7III. Tim is also an expert editor, proficient in Final Cut FCPX
