PROFILE

Wren is a commercial photographer and cinematographer specialising in expertly crafted, documentary styled imagery firmly grounded in realism.

Drawing from his documentary background, Wren possesses the skill to capture the often overlooked essence of a moment, a quality that he leverages to create work that not only communicates truths but also forges deeper connections.

Wren approaches his work thoughtfully and practically. His affable, unpretentious nature, coupled with his unwavering dedication to his vocation, instills confidence and brings out the best in the creatives he collaborates with.

He closely collaborates with agencies, productions, and brands to ensure his work aligns with their specific needs. Wren's international experience has honed his skills, and he currently resides in Melbourne, Australia, with his partner, children, an appreciation for bespoke woodwork, and the occasional nip of single malt.
